

2020 NDBA Consignment Sale

*The 2020 NDBA annual consignment sale will take place under the format of a Online Simulcast Auction hosted by Quality Auction Services on Dec. 19th, 2020 in a VIRTUAL ONLINE BIDDING FORMAT. Bidding on the animals will be live ONLINE at <https://qas.hibid.com/> for the duration of the sale. Here is what you need to know before consigning or buying animals through this new sale format. All Consignors will receive a free NDBA Membership and Commission is set at 3% for the sale.

Consignors:

1. All animals must be consigned by December 10th, 2020 so the NDBA can schedule to come video and photograph the animals being consigned.
2. Consignors will have sale animals penned separately from their other animals to create a clear visual of what the ranch is offering for sale.
3. Consignors will provide the NDBA with a list of the dangle tag numbers and colors to be cataloged for the sale.
4. ALL ANIMALS MUST have some form of (Bangs tag, Federal Metal Tag, RFID Tag) permanent ID TAG that correlates with the Dangle Tag.
5. Consignors are encouraged but NOT required to do additional testing on their animals to appeal to more buyers. All information in regards to testing will be posted ahead of the sale for buyers to have full disclosure on the animals offered and the potential for additional required testing that may be needed.
6. Consignors will notify at time of consigning whether they are open to providing additional testing on animals after the sale at the buyer's expense.
7. Consignors agree to holding animals for up to 7 days after the conclusion of the sale.. Any additional time needed by the buyer will be agreed upon outside of the realm of the NDBA between the buyer and seller.
8. Consignors will try to provide weights on their animals to the best of their ability with full disclosure as to how the weights were obtained and the type of scale used. If no weights are available, animals will be sold without weight data.
9. Consignors will guarantee healthy animals at load out. Transfer of risk will take place once the trailer gate is shut.
10. NDBA commission will be 3% which covers auctioneers, marketing and production costs for the sale.
